_____ makes hope a _____.

Hope is a _____.

The _____ of Jesus is the
_____ of real hope.

We can have _____ hope for a

Hope for _____ makes us
_____.

The _____ of Jesus gives us hope for _____ and _____.

Let hope _____ your _____.

_____ the _____ - _____ hope of Christmas.

CONNECT GROUP QUESTIONS

1. Would you consider yourself more of an optimist or realist? Give an example.
2. Have someone read 1 Peter 1:3-6 aloud while you follow along. Take turns sharing what words or ideas stand out to you and why. Feel free to highlight or mark up that passage in your bible or app.
3. Jon said "Let hope shape your perspective." What situation or example is happening in your life now that could use a fresh perspective shaped by that 'real hope?'
4. With that, how can your group support you or pray for you?
