

So, what about...?

An open and honest discussion exploring your questions about God and Christianity

PART 1: ORIGINS WEEK OF FEBRUARY 9, 2020

MESSAGE FILL-INS

_____ is often a _____ for a deeper, more complete, and more _____ spiritual life.

The _____ should be a place that _____ doubt and _____ questions.

Questions are supposed to _____ to _____... not reinforce our _____.

We can _____ and still be in the same _____.

_____ and _____ are not at war.

Science and Christianity _____ each other.

The question that matters is not, "_____ are we here?" but, "_____ are we here?"

The point of the creation story isn't _____ God created, but _____ he created because he _____.

Even if everything science shows about our origins is accurate, _____ of it _____ the _____ of Christianity.

The core of Christianity is _____.

We may never fully understand how we were made, but Jesus is _____ that we are _____ by the one who made us.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out, bothered, or intrigued you in this week's message? Why?
2. Why do you think "the church" is often seen as a place that discourages doubts and questions?
3. How have doubts and questions played a role in your spiritual journey?
4. Read Colossians 1:15-22. In conjunction with Jon's final point, how might this passage give perspective to whatever you are dealing with in your life right now? How can your group support you?
