

Episode 4: Easter || April 12, 2020

Main Points (Luke 24:36-48; John 1:4-5, 9-14)

We are all longing for a bit of peace right now.

In the darkest times there have always been Jesus Follower's who have had a strange, resilient peace.

What we all need right now is a resilient peace.

Resilient peace comes from a single historical event: the resurrection of Jesus.

When you don't have to fear death you can have peace in every situation.

The first Easter was not the end... it was just the beginning.

The Light of the World brings a resilient peace in the darkest days.

Discussion Questions

1. What does "Easter" mean to you?
2. Whether you consider yourself a Jesus-Follower or not, what would it take for you to change your mind about whether or not He is trustworthy?
3. What do you want "resilient peace" to look like for you moving forward?

"Show Notes" Resources with Links:

- Let us know you're here!
- Facebook Connect Group
- Apps for Reading the Bible:
 - Dwell App (free for 60 days)
 - YouVersion App
- Bible verses referred to in this episode
- Articles for more reading:
 - The Guys Who Saved Easter by Andy Stanley
 - 7 Ways to Celebrate Easter during Quarantine
- Local Businesses we've involved so far:
 - Agape Custom Shop (Giveaway Sponsor)
 - On Any Sundae (This week's Giveaway)
 - Noble Wave
 - Star Shirt - Causewagon
- Books referred to:
 - Problem of God \ Reason for God \ Can we Trust the Gospels
- Donate to Crosscreek & keep a good thing goin'