

Into the Unknown: The Path of Confidence || Episode 22 || August 16, 2020

Main Points - Genesis 16:5-15

It can be terrifying to face an unknown future alone.

Confidence in the unknown comes from trusting that we are known.

Jesus showed us that God cares for every individual no matter their race, gender, or class.

God's love and care is often most clearly seen when we are alone and facing the unknown.

Trust often requires us to take a difficult step that doesn't make sense.

When we trust that God sees us we have confidence facing a future we can't see.

You are not alone. You are seen. You are heard. You are known.

Question: How would your life be different if you KNEW that God KNEW you?

When you know that you are known you have confidence in the unknown.

Invitation: Luke 12:22-34 once a day for a week.

Fear of the unknown is erased by the confidence of being known.

Discussion Questions

1. What is something about our unknown future that seems to keep causing you worry, stress, and/or uncertainty?
2. Get a jump start on this week's reading challenge and read Luke 12:22-34. What here cultivates peace for you?
3. What would be different for you if you KNEW, in every moment, that God saw you, heard you, and knew you? How can your group pray for you in this?
