Almost everyone has an opinion about the Bible.

When we properly understand what the Bible is we can understand how to use the Bible properly.

Main Points

- No one alive today is required to meet the standards of the OT in order to please God.
- the foundation of Christianity is not a book but an event.
- Jesus' death and resurrection fulfilled and ended the old contract based on rules and performance and replaced it with a new promise based on love and trust.
- The NT writings aren't reliable because they are in the Bible... they are in the Bible because they are reliable
- The NT writings are the most reliable set of documents from the ancient world.
- The authors of the NT were more than eye-witnesses... They were chosen representatives.
- The Apostles of Jesus were chosen and authorized to speak for Jesus.
- The NT writings don't have authority because they are in the Bible. They are in the Bible because the writers had Jesus' authority.
- The NT writings did not create the story of Jesus. The story of Jesus created the NT writings.
- We can logically and historically believe the unbelievable story of Jesus' death and resurrection.
